Remarks: This study is about ready for signature by the Director. However, the clipped pages are matters which are of interest and concern to the DD/S. Therefore, before sending it into the Director, Jack asked that we make it available to you for your examination and comment, if any. If you concur in the DD/P recommendations with regard to the points concerning the DD/S, we will ask the Director to sign the memorandum contained in the front, and assure that you get a copy of the implementing document as advice for your action.

John:

This is more of a production than was necessary. However, since it has been done I'll send it on over. It takes only a few minutes to thumb thru. It does not in fact change or disagree with [REDACTED] memo and as far as we are concerned the Director's signature is in order. 25X1A
